

Curious George Goes Camping

by Margret & H.A. Rey's

Curious George gets into mischief while camping but is able to redeem himself in an emergency.

Read

Before:

Introduce the book and tell the children a little bit about it. Follow that with a comment or question that is related to the story such as, Has anyone ever slept in a tent? Encourage a discussion so the children can comment, ask questions, and express their feelings. Set the stage for listening by asking an "I wonder" statement based on the cover illustration.

- I wonder if Curious George put up the tent by himself or if he had help?

During:

Encourage the children to comment on the illustrations, ask questions, and predict what will happen next in the story. Children gain confidence and a sense of achievement through being able to correctly predict how a story will end. Point out "rare words" (e.g., those words that are not commonly used in every day conversation) and help the children relate the meaning in a way that makes sense to them.

Rare Words in Curious George Goes Camping

After:

Discuss the story. Ask questions...

- What kind of animal is George?
- Why was he called Curious George?
- Who did he go camping with?
- What was the first thing George did on the camping trip? Have you ever put up a tent?
- The man in the yellow hat sent George for a bucket of water? Why?
- What did Curious George do with the bucket of water before he got back to the campsite?
- Why did the camper chase him into the woods? Did he get lost? Have you ever gotten lost?
- Can you name some of the animals that George saw in the woods? Did he see a kitty? What happened when he pulled on the skunk's tail?
- Can you name some of the things that George did to get the skunk smell off of him? Have you ever been sprayed by a skunk?
- When George climbed up in the tree, what did he see? What did he do next?
